NEW-YORK, October 28.

Extract from the Votes of the General Assembly.

Die Lunæ, the 14th of October, 1751.

A Message from His Excellency, by Mr. Banyar, Deputy-Secretary; which being read, is in the Words following, viz.

Gentlemen,

THE Effects of the Meeting I had with the Indians last Summer at Albany, and the Presents I then gave them, were evident; but unless the Expence of a daily Care of the Indian Affairs be provided for, the good Impressions then made on them, will be soon effaced by the continued [illegible] indefatigable Endeavours of the French Emissa[illegible]quiny-River, ace at a very great and unusual Expence; bout 40 years r to you, by some of the Papers that I liſh*, sloops as o communicate to you, for your better to Mr. Wynn; he is tho't to

It f Peace, to provide against the Contin[illegible]reeches. All happen in Case of a War, more especi[illegible], named Moll, abo Neighbours, the French, so dili- gently most artful knack o n Emergency.

I ch that she may be c urging so strongly the Considera- tion o very upright creatur but the Safety and Prosperity of the P*ublick Thief* and Lyar an I shall be very sorry to have no ot brown pen Endeavours, but that which will arise Greenal, in having done all that is in my Powe whenc a grey ufies which may be entertained, as to the [illegible]on of o Thousand Pounds, that you granted for Presents to the Indians, I shall order an Account to be laid before you.

Gentlemen,

I am surprised at the Complaint you make, in the latter Part of your Address. The Speaker of your House, at the Close of the last Sessions, told me, that if I would continue [illegible] you together 'till the latter End of September, when the Corn would be in the Ground, it would be accountable for, and he engaged that you should then punctually attend.

I GAVE Orders to the Deputy-Secretary, to write Letters to the Members (without Exception) to acquaint them of my Resolution to meet the General Assembly of this Province, on the first of October, in order to go upon Business. On examining him, he assures me, that he did write Letters accordingly, and that he did send them to the several Members, with all the Care he could, or did at any Time formerly. It is true, that he has acknowledged, that he did not write any Letter to the Speaker, because, he said, it had not been usual.

IT has been customary for the Speaker to attend the Governor some Time before the Expiration of every Prorogation. You know that your not being able to make a House before the Eighth Instant, was not occasioned by the Members not receiving their Letters of Notification.

Gentlemen,

I HAVE taken this Trouble to explain this Matter, that all Occasion of Misunderstanding may be avoided. Nothing can be done to any good Purpose, without an Union in the Councils, of the several Branches of the Legislature: And as Nothing shall be wanting on my Part, for this Purpose, I hope to convince you, that no Consideration whatsoever is of any Weight with me, but the Prosperity and Welfare of the People committed to my Care.

G. CLINTON.

Fort-George in New-York,
12th October, 1751.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman, dated at Stockbridge, August 31, 1751.

GOD in his Providence seems now to be opening the Door for the introducing the Light of the Gospel among the Nations (i.e. the 6 Mohawk Nations) wider than ever before. And if we, the English, don't fail of doing our Part, there is a Prospect of great Things being done. And it looks as if this present Season were our Now or Never. 'Tis evident, the French are now exerting themselves in an extraordinary Manner to draw all these Nations over to them, and engage them in their Interest. The King of France has lately made extraordinary Provisions for them, that very large and liberal Presents may be made them in Canada. And they are indefatigable in the Endeavours they use, in the Labours of their Emissaries, and all Ways they can devise. They are building Forts in all the Parts of America to the [illegible] of us, in the Carrying-Places between the Lakes and Rivers, and in all the most important Places where they may have greatest Advantage to bring the Indians into Dependence down [illegible] to drain their Trade. Colonel Johnson and Major Lo- [illegible] (who probably are the best acquainted with the State of Affairs of all the Subjects of the British Crown) said [illegible] Indians, at the Time of the Treaty at Albany, "That it was a great [illegible] Case, and that it was a Thing beyond all Doubt or Dispute, [illegible] but unless something very extraordinary were speedily done, "and what must never like to be done, these Nations were "lost to the British Interest."

Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, Sept. 29. A few days ago arrived here the Torrington man of war of 40 guns, Captain Hutchinson, and a Snow and large Ship with Palatines from Rotterdam, which two last make up four vessels with settlers this year.—Also Capt. Craigie with recruits and stores for the garison. We have now five men of war here, viz. the Gosport, Commodore Pye, and Torrington, of forty guns each, the Centaur of 20 guns, (which is soon to sail for her station at New York) and the Albany and Tryal Sloops, of 14 guns each.

Boston, October 2. "We have had credible information from the Mohawks, that the French are now gone from Canada with an army of 600 men, 400 French and 200 Indians (intending to augment their army to a 1000, as they go along) into the South-Western parts of North-America, in order to strengthen their own interest and ruin ours in those parts; particularly to destroy the nation of the Toosachtoowees, that are very friendly to the English; and to kill a certain Virginia trader, who, by his honest dealings with the Indians, has lately gain'd the affections of many, and greatly drawn their trade that way; and that C. J. having had intelligence of this by a Frenchman who deserted from the army, and in various other ways, had sent a belt of wampum to all the six nations, to give them notice of it, and to excite them to oppose the designs of this army."

Boston, October 14. Saturday last a vessel arrived at Salem from St. Eustatia, which brings a very sorrowful, tho' imperfect account, viz. that on the Seventh of September last, they had among the Leeward Islands, the most terrible hurricane that had been known for a great number of years: That at Antigua, St. Kitts, &c. most, if not all the vessels were drove ashore, but that it was not particularly known what damage was done:——That of all the vessels which put out of St. Eustatia, none of them had been heard of several days after.

[illegible]

Brig. Friendship, Barrett, got off. Brig. Knowles, Piere, Antigua, lost. Brig. Neptune, German, Antigua, founder'd. Brig. Greyhound, Houston, Boston, will get off. Schooner Catharine, Lindlay, Antigua, lost. Schooner Turner, Cookson, got off. Sloop Hope, Lee, Wilmington, got off. Sloop Charming-Molly, Donavan, Tortola, will get off. Ship Speedwell, Dedman, Salem, will get off. Sp. Rachel, Douglas, Antigua, will get off. Sp. Barbuda-Packet, Harry, Barbuda, got off. Sp. Prudent-Mary, Hudson, Antigua, lost. Sp. —— Bamister, Antigua, got off. Sp. Purcel, Brookes, Antigua, will get off. Sp. Anne, Green, Antigua, will get off. Sp. Elizabeth, Chapman, Montserrat, got off. Sloop —— Richardson, Bermuda, will get off. Two Shallops, Montserrat, will get off. As also 22 shallops and two-masted boats put ashore, and three hulks, most of which will be got off.

Capt. Lee, in the Triton, ashore at Parham, but will be got off. The Sloop——, Jackson, and two Sloops belonging to Major Vickery, ashore, and will also be got off.

The Brig. William, Lewis, from New-London, at Willoughby-Bay, is lost. A Sloop belonging to St. Eustatia, drove ashore at Green-Island, the people supposed to be lost. A Sloop founder'd off of the Old Road, and 7 or 8 dead bodies drove ashore.——A Sloop belonging to Major Hamilton, and a shallop belonging to Mr. Nanton, lost.

The Glasgow and Shark men of war, were both ashore at English harbour, but are got off.

Capt. Bedford, who arrived Yesterday from Barbados, informs us, that he had the gale of wind off of Martinico, but not with so much severity as to hinder him to carry sail; and a vessel arrived from Boston, which was three degrees to the Northward of this Island when the storm happened, had it also moderately: But we are in pain for Montserrat, St. Kitts, and the other Leeward-Islands, which seldom escape such severe hurricanes without great loss.

St. John's, Antigua, Sept. 20. A Gentleman from St. Kitt's, who left that on Monday Afternoon, informs us, that the violent Hurricane, which we had here on the 8th Instant, was likewise felt there with great Severity. The Town of Basseterre has received but little Damage, the Wind when at the greatest Height, blowing from the North; but in the Country their Houses, Mills, and Works, are in general very much damaged, and the Crops [illegible] which is quite the Reverse of what has happened in this Island) have suffered the Almighty. Five Shallops were drove ashore and lost to Nevis. At Nevis they have [illegible] which the same Fate with their Neighbours at St. Kitt's, in their Mills, Works, Houses, &c. The Vessels that were in the Road likewise put out to Sea.

And by the Accounts from [illegible], they must have received much more Damage in Proportion to their Works, than any of the Islands in this Government; there being, as it is said, but two Mills that have escaped, the almost general Devastation, in the whole Island. One Vessel had returned on Saturday last, out of 5 that put to Sea.

The following are the latest Advices received from England, per the Portrose, Capt. Hall, from Cowes.

LONDON, August 20.

YESTERDAY the right hon. the earl of London set out from his house in privy-garden, Whitehall, for Scotland, to resign the governorship of Stirling-Castle, in order to take upon him the government of Jamaica.

It is believed, that measures will be speedily taken for repairing the old English fort at Dominico, or for building a new one in the neighbourhood, without any loss of time, as the preservation of that post, for securing the English trade upon the Gold Coast, is a matter generally understood, and allowed to be of great importance.

London, August 22. From the Utrecht Gazette we learn, that the English East-India company have resolved to contract for 4 companies of Foot, of 150 men each; they are to rendezvous at a town upon the Rhine, in order to embark for England, where they are immediately to receive 7 l. each man, and from thence to serve in the settlements of that company.

It is reported, that the East-India company will send a large quantity of warlike stores and provisions to the coast of Coromandel; and that the government will send some men of war.

'Tis said, there is an account from Africa, that the king of Annamaboe has offered to bring an army of 20,000 men to assist and protect the English factory on the Gold Coast.

London, August 24. [illegible] governors of the Foundling [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] We must [illegible] Report [illegible] cerning the memorial delivered some time ago by the French court about the island of St Lucia, contains in substance, That the said island has been alternately possessed by the English and French; that they have both been several times expelled by the Native Indians, according as parties or nations happened to be united and consequently, that at certain times it was possessed by neither nation: From whence it is concluded, that no right of property or sovereignty in that island can be established, for want of a sufficient time to ground it upon. What arguments may be opposed to this [illegible] by France, are not yet known.

London, August 27. Our letters from Madrid advise, that thro' the indefatigable pains of Mr. Keene, the negociation which that minister was employed in at the court of Spain, is very near being brought to an happy issue. The Spanish ministry is well disposed thereto, and as it's well known that England wants nothing so much as to strengthen the bands of friendship which should unite the two nations, one may reasonably expect soon to see a final Convention, which will put an end to that jealousy which has [illegible] mind between them.

By a letter from Vienna dated the 7th instant, we have that the Baron de Kevenhuller chamberlain to his imperial majesty, and general of his horse, died a few days before in that city, in the 79th year of his age. He was a native of Ireland, and quitted his country at the revolution; from the latter, he entered into the emperor's service as a volunteer, and in the first engagement behaved so well, that he had a commission given him, which gave him a greater opportunity of distinguishing himself, which he did so much that he was soon preferred, and by meth'd arose gradually even to the honours he died possessed of. He was in all the engagements where prince Eugene commanded, by whom he was very much esteemed, on account of his bravery and knowledge in the art of war.

Intrigues in Germany [illegible] the Romans, which will soon be brought upon the carpet, is the cause thereof. [illegible] who are not of opinion that [illegible] the measures proposed, are [illegible] ing the fundamental constitution of the [illegible] ing any deviation therefrom, and of [illegible] the treaty of [illegible]

[illegible] public finds, either in [illegible] the reign of [illegible]

[illegible]. He gives out that he preserved his life by the assistance of certain drops, of which he sells no less than four for as many Louisdores. Those who are inclined to visit him pay four pistoles for admittance, and four for a catalogue of his [illegible]; after which they stay with him as long as they please, and he entertains them very handsomely. He speaks all the languages of Europe elegantly, and is a perfect master of Hebrew, Greek, and Latin into the bargain; he appears very gay and lively, and seems to derive from nature a confidence requisite to sustain the part he has undertaken to act.

Yesterday it was confidently reported about 'Change-Alley, that the new nabob of Goleonda, set up by M. Dupleix, was killed some weeks after by some conspirators; whereby all the towering projects of the French governor-general are vanished in smoke. It is said this account has been brought by the Norfolk Indiaman, and 'tis hoped we may in a post or two have a confirmation of it from France.

'Tis currently reported that there are letters in town from the East Indies, giving an account of a smart engagement between a party of the French and another of the Great Mogul's army, in which the former lost 300 men. This, with some other advices, has occasioned a rise of Three per Cent. in the India Bonds.

Constantinople (the Capital of Turky) July 23. We have a most disagreeable scene before us this year, the plague has so considerably augmented, as to oblige the inhabitants to be almost continually removing from one village to another, or rather from one seat of infection to the other, for even the remotest parts, which were always thought to be the most secure, have not been exempt. In the midst of this calamity, we have had four successive fires, the first on the 9th instant, near the mosque of Sultan Mehemet, which burnt for Twenty-two hours, with a violent north east wind, by which Nine sixths of the town have been consumed, each district containing 700 houses, among which were the quarters of the Janissaries, consisting of 98 ranges of chambers, each usually containing from 350 to 400 men. The Janissaries then present, to the number of about 30,000, were, in this extremity, obliged to encamp on the great place called the Ribbendy; 300 of them have been since missing, and it is concluded were destroyed in attempting to extinguish the flames. The other three fires were less considerable, burning only four or five hours each; by which however many seraglios of the great men of this government have been reduced to ashes.

London, August 27. We hear, a certain Governor in North-America has desired to be recalled.

Among the several memorials drawn up by the French court, to prove her right to the Island of St. Lucia, there is one which tends to the following purpose:

That in 1635, M. Dijet de Nambuc, after having conquered some of the Antile Islands, also seized upon the Island of St. Lucia, and took possession of it in due form, but could not keep footing there. That in 1638, some English adventurers made a descent there, and were soon after expell'd by the savages. That M. du Parquet, nephew of M. Dijet de Nambuc, having succeeded to the rights of his uncle, took possession of St. Lucia towards the end of the year 1640, by consent of the native inhabitants, who acknowledged him in quality of governor. In 1664, the English having attacked the Island of St. Lucia with a body of 1500 men, obliged M. Bacon, the then governor thereof, to deliver up the fort to them. The next year, the English having been again driven out by the savages, the French repossessed themselves of the Island, but having neglected to maintain the colony, the Island became almost common to all nations, till the year 1686, when the English came with force and arms, and drove out the few French that were settled there, pretending that the Island belonged to them, &c.

It is also said in this piece, that in 1687, the dispute about the property of St. Lucia was treated of at London, but the revolution, which happened soon after, prevented its being decided. In 1718, his most Christian majesty granted the [illegible] and property of the Island to the Marshal Duke d'Estrees. That the governor and the troops which the marshal sent thither, having been recalled some time after, the king of Great Britain gave the said Island to the Duke of Montague, in whose name possession was taken of it in 1722; and that M. Champigny, then governor of Martinico, looking upon this as an unwarrantable procedure, had sent thither the English at the head of 2000 men, and obliged them to acknowledge St. Lucia for a neutral Island till this affair should be finally decided, &c.

London, August 31. Private letters by the last mail from Holland advise, that the French embassador at the Hague was suddenly call'd home from thence, without making any public entry, as was expected; which occasioned much speculation.

On Thursday night an express was dispatched to the court of France.

Some private letters from Hamburgh by the last Holland mail, advise us, that the duke of Saxe-Gotha has concluded a treaty of subsidy with the king of Great-Britain, by which his serene highness engages to furnish his Britannick majesty with a body of 7000 men.

We learn, that an answer has been drawn up to the memorial lately delivered here on the part of France (by which that crown maintains its right of sovereignty on the island of St. Lucia) [illegible] Board of commission] and 'tis said, that a decision will speedily be made of the final determination of the court of Versailles on that head.
